Presidents Report: Boys volleyball has become a major issue getting MHBVO certified. MHBVO needs to schedule a session with qualified boys' teams to training/review new raters by NYSCVOA rating team. Tim, acknowledged the efforts of Hank and Vince for their service to the organization and their years on the executive board. He presented each with a great trophy. He stated the season was positive and matches were covered. Encouraged members to expand their volleyball officiating looking into club volleyball. Line judge training was difficult to schedule and also encouraged members to expand their experience.
